

Amy Kate
Connolly

Amy Kate Connolly has rejoined the company following a two year hiatus to raise her young child. Amy Kate is an experienced REALTOR® and a real estate professional. She previously worked as an elementary school teacher and in the film industry (she is from a fourth generation movie family). Amy says, "My nurturing instincts come in very handy when it comes to helping clients buy or sell a home. I am a hard worker and I want clients to get the best from their real estate experience." She also has a Master's degree from Southern Methodist University, Texas. She is based in the Pacific Palisades office, and also lives in the Palisades, enjoying the proximity to the ocean and the village feel.

Sally Yuson has worked in real estate for ten years and has her real estate license. She worked as an agent for a year before deciding she preferred the administration side of the business. She is based at the Pacific Palisades office where she works closely with Anthony Marguleas on company marketing, assisting with MLS listings, marketing materials, and general administration.

Jamie Openden

Jamie Openden has joined the San Fernando Valley office, based at Toluca Lake, as an assistant to REALTOR® Heather Bergdahl.

Jamie is currently finishing her degree in women's studies at Cal State Northridge. She comes from a background in human resources, has instructed art and worked with children. "When I decided to get back into the business world, the close-knit, personal environment at A.M. Realty and the professionalism and people there were a great match for my skills. I believe everyone's home is their sanctuary, and I love architecture. I am looking forward to an exciting and fulfilling career in real estate."
